

Association for Talent Development ATD – Houston Chapter By-laws

(Amended July 2019)

Article I Name and Purpose

Section A: Chapter Name

The name of this organization is Association for Talent Development (ATD) Houston Chapter. The registered office of the Chapter shall be located in the State of Texas.

Section B: Affiliation with the Association

The Chapter is an affiliate of the American Society for Training and Development (“ASTD”), which is doing business under the trade name Association for Talent Development (ATD) (referred to herein as the “Association” or “ATD”), a non-profit educational society exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Association and its Chapters are not organized for profit.

Section C: Governance and Management of Chapter

The Chapter shall be governed and managed by a Board of Directors elected by the membership. The Board of Directors shall set policies within the limits prescribed by these bylaws.

Section D: Purpose

The Chapter is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (“IRC”), and may make expenditures for one or more of these purposes. Without limiting or expanding the foregoing, the Chapter’s specific purpose shall be:

- Providing leadership in the field of personnel training and development in order to assist management to improve performance results and develop and maintain a competent work force;
- Insuring continuity of effective organization leadership by assisting management to motivate career-minded personnel to achieve individual growth goals;
- Promoting an understanding of training and development as a basic responsibility of management;
- Encouraging or sponsoring appropriate research and publishing results in the fields of training and development;
- Providing means for the dissemination and exchange of advanced techniques, knowledge, skill and attitudes about training and development;
- Encouraging educational institutions to provide programs for the preparation and growth of training and development practitioners;
- Encouraging the networking, participation and affiliation of individuals or groups concerned with specialized areas of activity or interests within the broad field of personnel training and development;

Association for Talent Development ATD – Houston Chapter By-laws

(Amended July 2019)

- Provide scholarship funding as approved by the Board;
- Referring and connecting members and consultants by areas of expertise.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, the Chapter shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by: (i) an organization exempt from federal income tax under IRC Section 501(c)(3); or (ii) an organization contributions to which are deductible under IRC Section 170(c)(2).

Section E. Equal Opportunity

The chapter offers equal opportunity to all, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, political affiliation, veteran status, physical or mental impairment, and any other characteristics protected by law.

Section F. Political Activities

The Chapter shall not devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise. The Chapter shall not directly or indirectly participate or intervene in, including the publishing or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Section G. Inurement

No part of the net earnings of the Chapter shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, employees, or other private persons, except that the Chapter shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of IRC Section 501(c)(3) purposes.

Article II Membership

Section A. Eligibility

Membership in the chapter is open to those who have interests or responsibilities in training, human resource development, workplace learning and performance; are interested in advancing the objectives of the chapter and the Society; and subscribe to and are qualified under these by-laws. A chapter member in good standing is one who meets the requirements for membership, and whose dues are paid for the membership year. Only members in good standing as defined in the By-laws shall be entitled to vote,

Association for Talent Development ATD – Houston Chapter By-laws

(Amended July 2019)

to assume or obtain office, or to otherwise enjoy privileges of the Chapter. The Board may change, alter or add eligibility requirements to any membership type as approved and recorded in Board minutes.

Section B Dues

The Board of Directors will set dues, fees, terms and types of chapter memberships as they determine. Chapter membership is transferable for members in good standing of other chapters upon payment of dues. Individual memberships in the Chapter may not be transferred to another individual.

Section C. Suspension or Termination of Membership

The Board of Directors may, by a two-thirds vote of those present, suspend or terminate the membership of any individual for monies owed the chapter, or for actions or behavior in violation of these by-laws or deemed detrimental to the best interests of the chapter. Membership shall be automatically terminated when the dues of a member are unpaid sixty (60) days after the expiration of the membership year.

1. Suspension or termination of membership will be considered at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. Written notice of, and rationale for, proposed suspension or termination shall be mailed to board members and the member concerned at least twenty days prior to the meeting.

2. Any motion for suspension or termination must be made by an elected board member, based on personal knowledge, official chapter records, or statement signed by no fewer than 5 chapter members in good standing.

3. Before action of suspension or termination, the member will have an opportunity to be heard by the Board of Directors.

Article III Board of Directors

Section A. Duties and Responsibilities

The management of the affairs of the chapter shall be vested in the Board of Directors. It shall be the duty of the Board to carry out the objectives and purposes of the chapter, and to this end it may exercise all powers of the chapter. The Board of Directors shall meet regularly to conduct business. The duties of the Board shall include: establishing policy for the operation of the chapter; approving the strategic plan, the annual plan, and the budget; approving categories of membership; authorizing new committees of the chapter; and performing other functions as appropriate for the Board of Directors.
